

17. FOREIGN TRANSACTIONS: Purchases and cash advances made in foreign countries and foreign currencies will be billed to you in U.S. dollars. An International Transaction Fee up to 1% will be assessed on all transactions where the merchant country differs from the country of the card issuer. The converted transaction will be shown separately from the International Transaction Fee on your billing statement. This fee will be assessed on all international purchases, credit vouchers, and cash disbursements. The exchange rate for transactions in foreign currency will be a rate selected by Visa from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which may vary from the rate Visa itself receives, or the government mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date plus the International Transaction Fee of up to 1%.

18. PLAN MERCHANT DISPUTES: We are not responsible for the refusal of any plan merchant or financial institution to honor your card. We are subject to claims and defenses (other than tort claims) as set forth herein under, "Special Rules for Credit Card Purchases." You must resolve any other disputes directly with the plan merchant. We may limit the dollar amount and/or the number of transactions which may be approved in one day. If we detect unusual or suspicious activity on your account, we may temporarily suspend your credit privileges until we can verify the activity. We may approve transactions which cause the balance to exceed your credit line without waiving any of our rights to this Agreement.

19. SECURITY INTEREST: Except for real estate loans, collateral securing other loans with SECU may also be used to secure this VISA account. If you have any other loans from SECU, or take out other loans with SECU in the future, collateral securing those other loans will also secure the obligations under this Agreement. However, unless you expressly agree otherwise, your household goods and dwelling will not secure your obligations under this Agreement even if SECU has or later acquires a security interest in the household goods or a mortgage on the dwelling.

You have given a Consensual Security Interest incorporated by reference herein, in your SECU Savings or Money Manager account, as security for any advances to you or on your behalf on any SECU VISA Credit Card, excepting those accounts that have an adverse tax consequence.

20. CASH ADVANCES: Cash advances can be obtained through an ATM, convenience checks, SECU branches and other financial institutions. Upon your written direction or through SECU's website, cash advances may be made against your VISA account and applied to any of your SECU share accounts, or other accounts in the same manner as if the cash advance were paid to you. Deposit of the cash advance to any of your SECU accounts obligates you to the repayment of the cash advance per this Agreement.

21. BALANCE TRANSFER(S): Balance Transfers are treated as a cash advance. Finance charges for balance transfers will begin to accrue from date of the transaction and continue to accrue until payment in full is credited to your account. Total value of transfer request(s) cannot exceed credit line and/or credit availability whichever is less. SECU sends either full or partial payment to your creditors in the order you list them. Allow at least 2 weeks from request date for processing of the balance transfer. Continue paying each creditor until the transfer appears as a credit. Do not transfer any disputed purchase or charge because you may lose dispute rights.

22. EFFECT OF AGREEMENT: This agreement is the contract that applies to all transactions on your account even though the sales, cash advances, credit or other slips you sign or receive may contain different terms. We may amend this agreement from time to time by sending you the advance written notice required by Federal and State law. Your use of the card after the effective date of the amendment will indicate your agreement to the amendment.

23. GOVERNING LAW: This agreement is governed by the Annotated Code of Maryland, Financial Institutions Article, Title 6 and the Annotated Code of Maryland, Commercial Law Article, Title 12, Subtitle 9 and applicable federal law or regulation.

24. VISA STATEMENTS AND NOTICES: On a regular basis, you will receive a statement showing all transactions for this account during the period covered by the statement. Statements and notices will be mailed to you at the most recent address you have given SECU in writing. Notice to any one of you will be notice to all.

25. UPDATING INFORMATION: You promise that you will promptly give us written notice if you move, change your name or employment, or if any other information you provide to us changes. You also agree to provide SECU with updated financial information about yourself upon request.

26. COPY RECEIVED: By signing, using or accepting the SECU VISA card, you acknowledge receipt of this Agreement and agree to terms herein.

27. STOP PAYMENT: If before a Balance Transfer or Convenience Check drawn on your Account has been honored, you notify us not to pay it, we will stop payment on the check. You must send us a written and signed stop payment order which states the number, payee, amount, and date of the check on which payment is to be stopped. We may disregard any such order six months after our receipt unless you renew it in writing.

28. CLOSING YOUR ACCOUNT: You can cancel or close your Account by writing to us at SECU, 971 Corporate Blvd., Linthicum, MD 21090. Your notice becomes effective within five days after we receive it. If you cancel your Account, you must pay everything you owe us, including any amounts owed but not yet billed to you if you wish to avoid paying a FINANCE CHARGE on the outstanding balance. If you do not pay us immediately, outstanding balances will continue to accrue FINANCE CHARGES and other charges and be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You also agree to return your card(s) and any unused Transfer and/or Convenience Checks to us.

Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us at 410-487-7328 (Baltimore Metro Area) or (Toll Free) 1-800-879-7328, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

3. Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item in question.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR WRITTEN NOTICE

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the statement was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question and we cannot report you as delinquent. We can continue to send statements to you for the amount you question, including FINANCE CHARGES, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay the questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any FINANCE CHARGES related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you have to pay FINANCE CHARGES, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due. If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten (10) days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your account. We must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to, and we must tell anyone we reported you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your statement was correct.

How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new purchases)”.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided herein.

Variable APRs Based on Prime. The APR will be equal to the Prime Rate Plus an additional amount. If the Prime Rate increases, it will cause the APR to increase. If the Prime Rate decreases, it will cause the APR to decrease. For each Billing period we use the Prime Rate published in the Wall Street Journal on the last day of each calendar month of each year. If Prime Rate causes an APR to change, we put the new APR into effect as of the first day of the billing period for which we calculate the APR. We apply the new APR to any existing balances, subject to any promotional rate that may apply. If the Wall Street Journal does not publish the Prime Rate, we will use a similar published rate. The maximum APR will not exceed 24%.

APR for Purchases. It equals the prime rate plus 7.74%; plus 8.74%; plus 10.74%; plus 13.74%; or plus 15.74% depending on your credit worthiness.

APR for Cash Advances: It equals the prime rate plus 7.74%; plus 8.74%; plus 10.74%; plus 13.74%; or plus 15.74% depending on your credit worthiness.

Effect of APR Increases: If an APR Increases, interest charges increase.

In this agreement, the words “you” and “your” mean each person who has signed the application for the card. “Card” means the SECU VISA Platinum Credit Card, SECU VISA Platinum ScoreCard™ Credit Card, or the SECU VISA Student Credit Card, as the case may be, and any duplicates and renewals we issue. “Account” means your VISA Credit Card line of Credit account with us. “We”, “us” and “ours” mean State Employees Credit Union of Maryland, Incorporated (SECU).

1. RESPONSIBILITY: If we issue you a card, you agree to repay all debts and the FINANCE CHARGE arising from the use of the card and the card account. For example, you are responsible for charges made by yourself, authorized users you designate, your spouse and minor children. You are also responsible for charges made by anyone else to whom you give the card and this responsibility continues until the card is recovered. You cannot disclaim responsibility by notifying us, but we will close the account for new transactions if you so request in writing and return all cards. Your obligation to pay the account balance continues even though an agreement, divorce decree or other court judgment to which we are not a party may direct you or one of the other persons responsible to pay the account. Each of you who has signed the application is individually and jointly obligated for all payments due under this agreement. You agree to use the account only for personal, family, household or charitable purposes. You will not use this account for any illegal transactions. Notice to any Account owner is considered notice to all Account owners.

2. LOST CARD NOTIFICATION: If you believe your card, convenience checks and/or Personal Identification Number (PIN) has been lost or stolen, you will immediately call us at 410-487-7328 or 1-800-879-7328, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. During evenings, weekends and holidays, call 1-800-299-9842.

3. LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE: You understand that you may not be liable to SECU for any card transactions resulting from the loss, theft or other unauthorized use of the card that occurs prior to the time you notify SECU in accordance with Federal Law.

4. CREDIT LINE: If we approve your application, we will establish a self-replenishing line of credit for you and notify you of its amount when we issue the card. You agree not to let the account balance exceed this approved credit line. Each payment you make on the account will restore your credit line by the amount of the payment applied to the principal. You may request an increase in the amount of your credit line by written application or oral communication to us. It must be approved by our loan office. By giving you written notice, we may reduce your credit line from time to time, or with good cause, revoke your card and terminate this agreement. Good cause includes your failure to comply with the agreement, or our adverse reevaluation of your credit worthiness. You may also terminate this agreement at any time, but termination by either of us does not affect your obligation to pay the account balance. The cards remain our property and you must surrender all cards and convenience checks upon our request.

5. CREDIT INFORMATION: You authorize us to investigate your credit standing when opening, renewing or reviewing your account, and you authorize us to disclose information regarding your account to credit bureaus and other creditors who inquire of us about your credit standing to the extent authorized in our bylaws.

6. MONTHLY PAYMENT: We will mail you a statement every month showing your previous balance of purchases and cash advances, the current transactions on your account, the remaining credit available under your credit line, the new balances of purchases and cash advances, the total new balance, the FINANCE CHARGE due to date and the minimum payment required. Every month you must pay at least the minimum payment within 25 days of your statement closing date. You may, of course, pay more frequently, pay more than the minimum payment required or pay the total new balance in full and you will reduce the FINANCE CHARGE by doing so. The minimum payment will be either: (a) 2.5% of your total new balance or $20, whichever is greater; or (b) your total new balance if it is less than $20 plus any portion of the minimum payment shown on prior statements that remains unpaid. In addition, at any time your total new balance exceeds your credit line, you must immediately pay the excess upon our demand. We will apply your payments first to balances with the highest annual percentage rate and any remaining portion to other balances in descending order based on the applicable annual percentage rate. However, if you pay by check, the amount of your payment may not be applied to your available credit line for such period of time as we reasonably determine is necessary to ensure that your check is honored. We may also allow you to skip a payment. If we do, we will notify you in advance of this option. If you choose to skip a payment when offered, we will continue to assess FINANCE CHARGES. You agree to pay us in U.S. dollars drawn on funds on deposit in the United States using a payment check, similar instrument, or automatic debit that will be processed and honored by your financial institution. We reserve the right to accept payments made in foreign currency. If we do, we will select the currency conversion rate at our discretion.

7. IRREGULAR PAYMENTS: We reserve the right to accept late payments or checks and money orders marked “payment in full” without any prejudice to our rights under this agreement. If a check is presented for payment before the date you write on the check or the check is not dated, we have the right to process the check for payment or return it unpaid. You will hold us harmless for any action in payment or non-payment of the check.

8. FINANCE CHARGES: Your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. We will not charge you any interest on purchases if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. If you do not pay the total new balance for purchases by the due date, FINANCE CHARGES will be imposed on the unpaid purchase balance from the first date of the last billing cycle and on new purchases from the day they are posted to your account. For cash advances and balance transfers, FINANCE CHARGES will begin to accrue from the date of the transaction and continue to accrue until payment in full is credited to your account. We figure the FINANCE CHARGE on your account by applying the periodic rate to the “average daily balance” of your account (including current transactions).

The APR and daily periodic rate are provided on your welcome letter, incorporated herein and made a part hereof.

To get the “average daily balance” for purchases we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new purchases, and subtract any payments or credits, and unpaid finance charges. This gives us the daily balance. Then, we add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the “average daily balance.” To get the daily balance for cash advances, new cash advances are added to the day’s beginning balance and payments and credits are subtracted. Fees are not included in the calculation of the average daily balance. FINANCE CHARGES will continue to accrue on your account until what you owe under this Agreement is paid in full.

9. LATE CHARGES: In addition to the continued accrual of the FINANCE CHARGE at the daily periodic rate, if you fail to pay at least the minimum payment within 15 days after it is due, we may assess a late charge of up to $25.00 for each delinquent payment.

10. THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH ANY OTHER CHARGES MAY BE IMPOSED: These charges will be added to your purchase balance.

A. DISHONORED CHECK – A fee of up to $15.00 may be imposed if payment is made with a check that is dishonored on the second presentment.

B. RESEARCH CHARGE PER ITEM – A $6.00 fee will be charged to your account if you request a copy of a sale or cash advance draft that is not part of a chargeback or fraud claim. This fee will also apply to each statement request.

C. ADDITIONAL CARDS – We will issue up to four (4) cards at no cost. Rush requests are $25.00 per request.

11. DEFAULT: You will be in default if you fail to make a minimum payment within 25 days after your monthly statement closing date. You will be in default if you break any promise you made or any security agreement made in connection with an advance. You will be in default if you die, file for bankruptcy, or become insolvent, that is, unable to pay your obligations when they become due. You will be in default if you make any false or misleading statements in any credit application or update of credit information. You will also be in default if something happens that we believe may substantially reduce your ability to repay what you owe. When you are in default we can demand immediate payment of the entire amount you owe without giving you advance notice. You will also be required to pay our collection expenses, including court costs and an additional sum equal to 20% of the aggregate of the principal and interest due if your account is referred to an attorney at law or collection agency for collection. You authorize us to submit payroll deduction requests, when available, from your wages, salary or pension to the State of Maryland or other employer agency for any amounts in default without additional authorization.

12. DELAY IN ENFORCEMENT: We can delay enforcing any right under this agreement without losing that right or any other right.

13. SEVERABILITY: If any provision of this agreement is held invalid, all provisions that are severable from the invalid provision remain in effect.

14. ACCESSING THE ACCOUNT: To make a purchase or cash advance there are three alternatives. (a.) Present the card to a participating VISA® plan merchant, to us or to another financial institution. Then sign the sales or cash advance draft that has been imprinted or swiped with your card information. (b.) Complete the transaction by using your Personal Identification Number (PIN) in conjunction with the card in an Automated Teller Machine (ATM) or other type of electronic terminal that provides access to the VISA system. (c.) Issue a convenience check for the payment of goods, services or cash. You will retain the copy of such slips furnished at the time of the transaction to verify the monthly statement. SECU may charge a reasonable fee for photocopies of slips you request.

15. CARD RENEWAL: Cards are issued with an expiration date. We have the right not to renew your card for any reason.

16. RETURNS AND ADJUSTMENTS: Merchants and others who honor the card may give credit for returns or adjustments and they will do so by sending us a credit which we will post to your account. If your credits and payments exceed what you owe us, we will hold and apply this credit balance against future purchases and cash advances, or if $1.00 or more, refund it on your written request or automatically after 6 months.
